Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-12 and 17-30, drawn to a method for fabricating a liquid crystal display (LCD), classified in class 349, subclass 187.

II. Claims 13-16 drawn to a LCD, classified in class 349, subclass 149.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the contact area of the LCD product can be made by a different method wherein there is no insulating layer being formed on the contact area or by another different method wherein the step of removing an insulating layer over the contact area of the first substrate part is performed before the step of attaching the first and second substrate parts to each other.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Further, Group I contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A

A1 claims 2, 3 and 18 drawn to the step of using an etch solution.

A2: claims 5 and 19 drawn to the step of using a laser.

A3: claims 6 and 20 drawn to the step of using plasma.

Species B

B1: claim 9 drawn to the step of using only three masks.

B2: claim 10 drawn to the step of using only four masks.

Species Ct

C1: claim 24 drawn to the step of manually connecting.

C1: claim 25 drawn to the step of automatically connecting.

If Group I is elected, Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed sub-species of each species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable, e.g. A1, B1 and C1. Currently, claims 1, 4, 7, 8, 11, 12, 17, 21-23 and 26-30 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to Tai Duong at telephone number (571) 272-2291.

The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
